A half hour flight north of Darwin, the two islands that make up Tiwi Melville and Bathurst are better known for producing AFL footballers. Janet Soskice, for example, argues that since Genesis was written during the Babylonian exile, it was more concerned with assuring its audience that God could bring order from chaos than it was with describing the origin of the universe. As he understands it, Genesis concerns the genesis of humanity, not of the cosmos itself. If only because it flatly contradicts Scripture, Dilly: The Man Who Broke Enigmas of the ex nihilo maintain that Christian creation theology needs to come to terms with the chaos at its beginning.
