If religious belief be indeed so necessary to mankind, as we are continually assured that it is, there is great reason to lament, that the intellectual grounds of it should require to be backed by moral bribery or subornation of the understanding. Wait--we didn't mean like. Then a box of family history lands on her lap and she finds the mother she'd never known-and some suspicions are confirmed that nearly blow Ruby's knickers off. The hero, Paul spends most of the book being enamored by the heroine's very beautiful sister yet unmistakably drawn to the less beautiful heroine, Gwen. Kindle Edition Verified Purchase.
